WOODS OF GREAT VALUE.

South American Countries Rico With Lumber Practically Unknow.

Many of the finest woods in existence are yet unknown, or only slightly known, to the manufacturers of wood in the civilized world. The woods of Central and South America are perhaps the most remarkable as well as the least known. In the yet untouched forests of this continent are many woods far finer than any of those now in use. These woods range from pure white to jet black in color, and many of them are most beautifully marked and veined. Some of them are so hard that they turn the edges of axes, chisels and other tools, while the handsaws cut them only slowly. In the Columbian exposition there were many displays of little known woods, and the finest of them were those from Argentine republic, Brazil and other South American countries. Some of these southern woods yielded to the teeth of the band saws, not the ordinary sawdust, but fine powder, fine as the finest flour, so hard were the woods. Others possess qualities that keep them free from insects. Some of them seem to be practically indestructible by air and water. All along the eastern slopes of the Andes, up to the snow line of those elevations, throughout all the great river valleys, and in some of the wide areas of level country in South America, are great forest trees of fine woods that are especially fit for the finest cabinet and furniture work, and also for shipbuilding, carpentry and other industrial arts, in which wood is the "raw material." These great forests are now an unknown quantity in the commercial world, but they will come rapidly into the knowledge of men and into industrial use when once the railroad has reached them. Before many years, it is safe to predict, the South and Central American republics will be threaded by railroads, and then those wonderful woods will be drawn upon to supply the demand for new and fine woods in all the civilized countries.—Kansas City Times.

Lunatic Asylum Destroyed.

Anna, Ill., Jan. 4.—Fire broke out at 1 o'clock this morning in the rooms of the center building of the group of the great buildings of the insane asylum in this city and spread with great rapidity. At 2:30 the fire was beyond control and the loss was then over $100,000. An hour later all three buildings were ablaze, the central building being gutted. The loss amounts to $300,000. Help was requested from Cairo and Carbondale and there was great excitement.

At 4 a. m. the north wing was in great danger. In this building were huddled 600 gibbering lunatics, who were with great difficulty restrained from breaking out. The great main building and the south wing are a mass of smouldering ruins, but the heat from the debris being so great that they could not be approached for some hours.

A special train on the Illinois Central with three engines and crews arrived from Cairo at 3 a. m. and drenched the ruins, besides saving several smaller adjacent buildings which were blazing furiously.

All the unfortunate people were removed safely. In the excitement attending the transfer of the more violent maniacs a number were badly bruised by stumbling down stairways, their keepers being unable to maintain even a semblance of order among them. None escaped, however, the keepers being reinforced by volunteers

Beautiful! Is it Unusual?

To see a boy seventeen years of age, vigorous, impulsive, whole-hearted, self-reliant—yet conscientious, confiding; always considerate to his inferiors, respectful to his superiors, and courteous to his equals; a boy who can be relied upon to protect the weaker, to help those that need it, to make peace, to bear himself toward his father with loving respect and to treat his mother with thoughtful helpfulness and unfailing kindness.

Now and then we meet such a boy, and we have seen fathers whose sons were a contrast to him, look with envy upon him; and the tear glistening in the eye of a mother who, perhaps, in his presence has been rudely treated by her own son.

Some of these rude young men satirize polite and courteous boys as imitators of girls. I would not have any boy imitate a girl, nor any imitate a boy. The word gentleman does not mean weak man. Do not, in trying to avoid the charge of being girlish, act like a bear.—New York Christian Advance.

Sentenced to Death.

Wellington, Kan., Dec. 29.—Anderson Gray was to-day given the death sentence by Judge Burnett, according to the verdict of the jury finding him guilty of murder in the first degree for the killing of Thomas Hattan.

Thomas McDonald, while under the hypnotic influence of Gray, did the killing, but was acquitted. Gray is a well-to-do farmer. Hatton had incurred his enmity and Gray hypnotized McDonald, a farm hand, and while the latter was in that condition compelled him to commit the murder.

Young Emperor William, of Germany, seems to be losing popularity among his subjects

Senator E. L. Agnew, of the Bonham district will introduce a bill in this legislature looking to a purification of primary elections.

No Populists for Frye.

Augusta, Me., Jan. 4.—At a joint caucus of the legislature last evening, United States Senator Frye was unanimously renominated. In reponding to the nomination Senator Frye said among other things:

"We have control of the next senate by a combination with the populists but does any man here wish us to make such an alliance."

Cries of "No! no!"

"I am glad," he continued, "for had you wished it I should not have obeyed the mandate I don't love the democratic party, but I admire it when compared with the populist organization."

The Deadly Hug.

Sedalia, Mo., Jan. 3.—John Creamer of Sedalia has a little wife, whom he loves very much. At their home last night he suddenly grasped her and gave her a vicious hug with his right arm. Mrs. Creamer lost her berath, and when she managed to make an outcry she was assisted to bed. The family physician found three of her right ribs had been broken.

Reckless Extravagance.

The deficit of the government of the United States for the last fiscal year was $69,803,260. The estimated deficit for the current year is $20,000,000.

In the senate Mr. Sherman has introduced a bill providing for the purchase of of a statute of the late Chief Justice Chase

Deficit in the treasury for the last fiscal year nearly $70,000,000, estimated deficit for the current year, $20,000,000.

Senator Morgan is urging that the government of the United States undertake the project of the Nicaragua canal in some form or other, but he more particularly desires that the government loan its credit. Amendments to his bill propose that the government shall purchase the concession from the private owners and go ahead with the work, paying direcly for it. The amount involved approximates $100,000,000.

Deficit of the United States treasury for last year, a round $70,000,000. Deficit for the current year, a round $20,000,000.

But whether it is to dig a $100,000,000 canal, or buy a worthless statute for a few thousand dollars, there is not at Washington a senator, who cares a maravedi. The universal yankee nation seems to have lost all sense of economy and tarift. In the face of such statements as has been made to the representatives of the people, by the secratary of the treasury, showing the unfortunate condition of national finance, representatives of the people are ready to buy anything from popguns to palaces, from a statute to a coal station from peanuts to principalities. Where money are they spending?

Where does the burden fall? Upon our own people, and hardest upon our own people where they are least able to bear it. The congress of the United States is the most extravagant legislative body the world over. The administration of public affairs in the United States, is more reckless of expenditure, less conservative and thoughtful, than any administration the world over. The people are taxed to death, for the purpose of wild expenditure of money, ranging from the price of the statue Sherman wants purchased, to the price of the canal that Morgan would have constructed.

It is time to stop this outflow. It is time to cut our coat according to our cloth. It is time to stop selling gold bonds. It is time to exercise in the government of the United States the ordinary thrift that a private person must practice, in order to keep himself out of the poorhouse.—Ex

Rosenthal's Close Call.

Galveston, Tex. Jan. 5.—The life of Mr. A. J. Rosenthal hung by a very fine thread for several hours to-day. He arose about 7 o'clock as usual this morning and stepped into a bathroom just off from his bed chamber. Not reappearing as his wife anticipated, she stepped into the room, for he had been quite unwell for some time and has had frequent fainting spells. She found him unconscious. Summoning hurriedly their two sons he was carried out of the bath room and placed on the bed, and when the usual restoratives were applied without success doctors were summoned. He had overworked himself during the late campaign, in which he had been a candidate for congress. It was no ordinary fainting spell, his heart was barely beating and two physicians worked with him all day, treating him hypodermically and rubbing his body to keep up circulation. At 5 o'clock in the evening, after being unconscious nearly ten hours, he rallied sufficiently to speak a few words and swallow medicine. Although not out of danger, there is now every hope that he will recover.

Refused to Deliver.

Cincinnati, O., Jan. 5.—Judge Buckwalter to day delivered an elaborate opinion in the case of the extradition of the Rev. A. S. Hampton, colored, demanded by Kentucky for shooting and wounding Mr. Dunbar in Green county.

When Hampton was first before the court his honor refused to deliver him unless he had assurances from the governor of Kentucky and from the judge of the court that Hampton would be protected from mob violence and that he would be given a fair trial. The court said no such assurance had been received. The court cited statistics of nineteen lynchings in Kentucky within a comparatively short time and recalled the fact that one of the victims had been surrendered by this court. The prisoner was discharged.

Blacks Preparing to Emigrate.

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 3.—Reports from Stewart are to the effect that in that and adjoining counties African emigration societies are being organized. Every colored tenant on one Stewart county farm has joined an emigration club, with the avowed intention of going whenever and wherever their leaders say, The blacks in that section are turning everything they have into money with a view to sailing for Liberia as soon as possible.

A Chance to Make Money.

In the past week I have made $125 and attended to my house. I think I will do better next week. It seems the more Dish Washers I sell, the more demand I have for them. I think any lady or gentleman, anywhere, can make money in this business. It is something every family wants, and when they can be bought so cheap they buy them, and the person who has enterprise enough to take an agency is bound to make money. I wish any of your readers that wish to make from $5 to $10 a day, would try this business and report their success. Any one can get full particulars by addressing the Iron City Dish Washer Co, E. E Pittsburg, Pa. Such a chance is rare—at least I have never struck one.

The great Southern Exposition will open the 18th of September next at Atlanta, Ga, and close on the 31st of December following. The object of the exposition is to bring together a collection of the products of the Western hemisphere. It is international however and exibits are expected from every country in the world. The United States government has aided the enterprise by appropriating $200,000 for an exhibit similar to that at Chicago.

In the discussion of the Carlisle Banking bill in the house of representatives, Mr. Bryan, of Nebraska, said that, stripped of its verbiage, this bill was a simple proposition to authorize the government to loan banks money at a low rate of interest or at no rate, to be in turn loaned by them at whatever rate they could secure. Mr. Bryan directed attention to the contradictory views of Jefferson and Cleveland, the first and last democratic presidents, on this subject. "Mr. Cleveland thinks," said he, "that the issue of currency is a function of the banks. Jefferson declared such an issue is a function of the government, and thought that banks should go out of the issuing business. I am not ashamed to say that I stand by Thomas Jefferson and not by Grover Cleveland.

COUNTY Alliance next Wednesday.

THE 24th Texas legislature convened Tuesday.

THIRTEEN thousand eight hundred and eighty five failures in 1894

IF little Ruody pays her debts certainly giant Texas ought to do as well.

SMITH of Hill county was elected speaker of the lower house of the Texas legislature Tuesday.

GOLDBUGISM equals 4 cent cotton, 30 cent wheat and thousands of idle paupers.

COLLIN county's representative Hon. J. R. Gough was quite a prominent candidate for speaker in the present legislature.

WHEN Cleveland was elected president, 10 years ago, he was a poor man. Now he is worth $4,000,000 Verily Grover is a great stakes man.

THE current year has seen a decrease of $22,000 000 in taxable values in Texas, and these democratic times are still with us.

IF Old Hickory Jackson could suddenly wake up what a kick he would raise to rid himself of his modern political bedfellows.

WILLIAM E Gladstone, the grand old man of England, happened to a serious acciden recently in which he broke his spectacles.

A MAN who is a republican, democrat, or populist merely because it is popular to be such, is a contemptible coward and a stench in the nostrils of freemen.

DON'T complain of hard times if you have been voting the old party tickets. You are simply reaping what you have sown. So swallow your medicine like a little man.

IT is difficult to understand how old Dick Bland can still remain in the democratic party after making such assertions as he made last summer, and in the face of that partys record on silver.

They Said She Would Die

But Hood's Sarsaparilla Proved Its Merit.

The following statement will be of interest to the many friends of Mr. Wright all over Alabama and Georgia. He was for ten years a locomotive engineer, and is now machinist for the Coosa Manufacturing Co.:

"I know the good there is in Hood's Sarsaparilla, because it has been proved in the case of my wife. In the summer of 1892, she was taken ill with malarial fever, which the physicians succeeded in breaking up. But then followed a severe illness like dropsy. She seemed to be growing worse every day, and our friends said

She Would Surely Die.

I was induced to have her take Hood's Sarsaparilla, which was followed by the best results. She has now taken eight bottles and has used six boxes of Hood's Pills, and is in perfect health, as well and hearty as ever. We thank God for such a valuable medicine as Hood's Sarsaparilla." H. A. WRIGHT, Piedmont, Ala.

Hood's Pills are all purely vegetable, harmless, and perfect in action. 25c.

A FELLOW who was a candidate, on the populist ticket last fall, for sheriff of a county up in Oklahoma, has been arrested on a charge of stealing horses, therefore, according to modern democratic logic, the populist party is a horsethief.

DR U. M. BROWDER is fighting Satan's kingdom in a big protracted meeting at Keytesville Mo. Old Satan is a very bad fellow but as yet, he hasn't got mean enough to draw his penknife and attempt to cut his adversary's throat.

GIVE the peoples party the reigns of government for a trial. If it makes as ignominous a failure as has the democratic party, then you will have a perfect right to say it is no better than the other parties. Not until you do this can you justly condemn it.

THE unexpected has again happened. Grover Cleveland and David B. Hill are friends. Yes they kissed. And without comment on the composition of each's stomach whereby they are enabled to peform such a feat and live on, we cheerfully poke them entirely gratis, the following "hunk" of advice Grover, if you value Davy's friendship, don't mention the result of the New York guberniatorial contest. Davy, if you wish to linger in Grover's affections never tread on our president's gouty big toe.

FOR several years Waller S Baker was leader of the democratic party in Texas, which party claims to be the champion of civil service reform. Recently this party leader and pretended friend to civil service reform withdrew from the bond of a postmaster because said postmaster retained a republican clerk. This is truly civil service reform with a vengeance.

SOON after the last national election which resulted in the overwhelming election of Cleveland the price of cotton made a slight advance. Then democrats everywhere jubilantly ejaculated "I told you so," Its going to 10 cents," these are democratic times. But lo. since then, democrats have imitated the prices of farmers products they've changed and now hoot at the very idea of a democratic administration being responsible for prevailing prices.

RECENTLY the Dallas News, speaking of Stump Ashby's visit to that city, gives the following complimentary notice of this noted populist leader:

Yesterday brought to Dallas one of the most unique characters of this state. It is not in the power of Round About to describe him; in fact, there is nothing remarkable about his appearance to describe. His wearing apparel certainly would have attracted no man's attention, for from head to foot he was attired in the habiliments of an every day farmer. Possibly his strong face, those bright, black eyes would have induced a city man to have glanced at him for an instant, but only for an instant. He did not appear to be old, whatsoever he were bent, for it is a fact that he was once one of the boy soldiers of the loved and lost confederacy, but only a private in the ranks. Few men knew more of poverty than he. For more than twenty years he has struggled day and night for his loved ones. And yet whenever the sun shines the brightest beams laugh through the crevices of his little cabin home, even when it is cloudy the mocking birds tarry in the little grove to sing Down at the foot of the hill there is a rippling little brook let and it gurgles music that would charm the naiads. Go into that man's cabin and you will read upon the walls Payne's words, "There's no place like home," and in this instance the old motto tells the truth. As humble as that cabin is, it is a temple of human love. A hungry man never passed its portals unfed, a shivering creature never found the hearthstone cold and lusterless. There has been an act of kindness there for every shingle on the roof, the echoes that tremble through the woodlands are never discordant and the stars love to dance and sparkle over the spot. The little old cabin is like the man who owns it; the man like he cabin If the reader happened to live near Smithfield it would be easy to understand that Round About had met Stump Ashby in Dallas Few people know Ashby, the outlaw. Everybody knows of Ashby, the politician.

Mrs. J. P. Bell, Osawatomie, Kan. wife of the editor of The Graphic, the leading local paper of Miami county, writes "I was troubled with heart disease for six years, severe palpitations, shortness of breath, together with such extreme nervousness, that, at times I would walk the floor nearly all night. We consulted the best medical talent. They said there was no help for me, that I had organic disease of the heart for which there was no remedy. I had read your advertisement in The Graphic and a year ago, as a last resort, tried one bottle of Dr. Miles' New Cure for the Heart, which convinced me that there was true merit in it. I took three bottles each of the Heart Cure and Restorative Nervine and It completely cured me. I sleep well at night, my heart beats regularly and I have no more smothering spells. I wish to say to all who are suffering as I did; there's relief untold for them if they will only give your remedies just one trial."

Dr. Miles Heart Cure is sold on a positive guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. All druggists sell it at $1, 6 bottles for $5, or it will be sent, prepaid, on receipt of price by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

Farmersville, Jan. 7, 1895.
Editor Democrat:

I will attempt to write you a few notes from the capital city of East Collin.

Another year has past and gone, and with it many changes have taken place, an allwise creator has blessed our land with a bountiful harvest. and we hear the cry of suffering in this the land of plenty It makes me sad to contemplate the scene. Something is wrong somewhere but I am unable to say where it is. Ar all our great andgood men gone Is there none who are able to give our country relief, and restore our former prosperity? Hwho can remedy this evil and restore our people to freedom ought to rise up in his might and come to the rescue and forever he would be called great. Our little city is on the standstill. Business of all kinds is depressed, and nothscarcely going on.

Our young people have had their round of festivities and regret that Christmas is gone

Our public school opened up on the first with a moderate attendance.

We are needing rain and nearly all the wells and cisterns are dry, water is very scarce and none to be obtained nearer than Pilot Grove creek. All of our gins in town are out of water and have to haul when they are running.

There are some sickness in town. Dr. Welch informs us that there are several children suffering with throat troubles; among the number the infant son of N. B. Millican, Mr. Les Allison's little child and also one of Jeff Hines' little children.

Well, Mr. Editor, they inform me that you are married now. You ought to be very good and nice to your wife because you have waited so long aboat finding a mate. We wish you all the joy you deserve, and hope the future holds in store for you the richest of blessings. BENJAMIN.

Balls City.

It seems that the gulf coast is to be the most desirable place for settlers in the great South West. The city referred to above is attracting much attention. Secretary E H. Porter, of Galveston, is being overwhelmed with correspondence making enquiry about Balls City and the fertile fruit and vegetable land surrounding it.

Stock is being fast taken up in the Commercial Travelers City Company and the enterprise is moving at a rapid gait. A fine hotel and many beautiful cottages are in course of construction. Farmers are turning their attention to the surrounding country. It is a fact that the climate is delightful and the conditions most favorable for health.

Landlord and Tenant.

Lucas, Tex, Jan. 5, 1895
Editor Democrat:

The contest for which I have been looking for sometime seems to be approaching very near. This question like all other important ones has two extremes. The landlord on the one hand wants all the poor man can raise on the land for rent, and if he has any surplus hogs or cattle he will take a few of them and if that does not satisfy his hellish greed he will take his note for the balance. This is the extreme on one side and the devil is just as sure to get this sort of a landlord as if he already had his chains around his neck He may fill a very important place in society and occupy a high position in the sanctuary but his soul is in the grasp of his Satanic Majesty.

But there are bad fellows on the other side who think it a terrible crime to own a little home and it is the highest type of civilization to give a mortgage on a crop and then sell it and beat the landlord out of his rights I have never been able to decide which of the two extremes are the least desirable.

But the world is not altogether growing worse. We still have men that are willing to live and let live.

This "notice" business that has been going on in reference to high money rents is not such a bad thing as you might imagine, provided it is not carried too far and does not make unreasonable demands. The landholder that wants a man to give all he makes and board himself ought to be chunked a little. We must not attach all the blame to one side in this question. Because a renter offers a large rent in order to get a shelter does not make the landholder guiltless that charges and accepts it.

Now this is about my idea in a concise form of this subject.

UNCLE MIKE.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury.

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive for them. Hall's Catarrh Cure manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio by F. J. CHENEY & Co., Testimonials free. Sold by druggists, 75c.

Nevada Reformers.

Feeling keenly my duty as a private citizen in assisting to uphold and perpetuate the integrity of our government, and at the earnest solicitation of many co laborers in the righteous cause we espouse, I hereby call upon all reformers and citizens of Nevada and vicinity who have love of home and the welfare of state and nation sincerely at heart, to assemble in the Nevada school house Saturday night, Jan 19, for the purpose of taking such action as shall then be determined upon by those present. All citizens, regardless of whether you make your bread by brawn or brain, who feel that the times are out of joint, are urgently requested to be present and assist with your council in devising some plan looking to the bettering of our common condition. And as the science of government is so closely allied with christianity, and with the utmost respect for the ministers of the holy word, a special invitation is extended to the clergy of the different denominations to also meet with us and aid us by your friendly co-operation.

A "Stag" Dinner Party.

Wednesday, Jan. 9, was Sam J. Davis' 20th birthday. which he appropriately celebrated by giving a dinner party to about ten of his young gentlemen friends, at the residence of his father, W. D. Davis, on College H. I. As a slight token of their friendship Clint Thompson on behalf of the guests, presented in well chosen words, a beautiful silver jewelry box, containing a gold ring and jewelry set, to the host, who gracefully accepted the same, after which the agreeable duty of dispatching an elegant dinner served in many courses, was entered upon. Miss Josie Davis, sister, and Miss Florence Ware, niece of the host, assisted in entertaining the bashful youths, who reluctantly took their departure after wishing their esteemed friend many such happy succeeding occasions.

LATE LITERARY NEWS.

An old-fashioned sea story full of interest and adventure, with a strong love motive, is begun by W. Clark Russell in the January Cosmopolitan. "Onida" succeeds Froude, Gosse, Lang, and other distinguished writers with an installment of the "Great Passions of History" series, which has been appearing in the Cosmopolitan. A discussion is aroused by Mr. Edward Bok's article on "The Young Man and The Church" which will consume tons of ink before it is settled. Just preceding the famous Charcot's death he prepared an article for the Cosmopolitan on Pasteur, to be published after Pasteur's death. But Charcot has died first, and so with the consent of Charcot's executors the article is given now. The present "Theatrical Season in New York" is critically considered by Mr. James S. Metcalfe, editor of Life, and there are stories by Tourgee, Howells, and the famous French writer Francois Coppee.

Attention of The Democrat's readers is called to the ad in this issue of Parlin & Orendorff Co., dealers in farm implements, wagons, etc. This widely known firm is represented by R. E. No doubt this enterprising young lady will reflect much honor upon our southern people in that great institution of music.

for which S. S. S. is the most reliable cure. A few bottles will afford relief where all else has failed.

I suffered from a severe attack of Mercurial Rheumatism, my arms and legs being swollen to more than twice their natural size, causing the most excruciating pains. Populist Call.

McKinney, Texas., De 8, '94
To the Populist Voters of Collin Co.:

FELLOW CITIZENS AND BROTHERS—We wish to congratulate the populists of Collin county on the magnificent fight made by our party in the recent election. With but one populist paper in the county and practically no means for meeting the legitimate expenses of the campaign, we have reduced the opposition majority in this county one-half.

We believe, by a system of organization and educational work, we can carry the county in 1896. We therefore, in obedience to the instructions of the county executive committee, make the following call:

We request the populist voters of each school community to meet as soon as practicable and organize clubs (where none already exist) and elect temporary officers and two or more delegates (not to exceed five) to meet in McKinney, Saturday, January 26, 1895, for the purpose of organizing "The Collin County Populist League."

(The name above is merely suggestive and may be changed when a permanent organization is effected.)

The object of organization is to inaugurate a more systematic method of educational work Let our motto be, organize and educate, and Collin county is ours in—96.

Christmas has come and gone, another year has been ushered in and no doubt many good resolutions have been formed for the new year.

Recently the writer paid a pleasant visit to friends in Newport, Clay county. He had the good fortune of partaking of a sumptuous wedding dinner while gone, also the pleasure, we trust, of seeing his future wife.

No doubt Dr. I. W. Hooper of this place, who is attending medical college in St. Louis, is the happiest man in that great metropolis, all due to the fact that a big, 10 pound girl recently came to his house to live. Mother and babe are doing well.

In chronicling the death of Mrs. Thomas Thompson, which occurred on the 31st of Dec., we feel exceedingly sad. The entire community deeply sympathize with the grief stricken family, left behind.

Hoping this communication may not be too long to publish I will close by wishing ye editor and his fair bride long life and much happiness.

BYSTANDER.

Fatal Practical Joke.

Gainesville, Tex. Jan. 4.—Rev. Mr. Witt, a Baptist minister, was annoyed and frightened by some young men coming around his house and making noises. He tried to open the front door, but it was held by the boys. He then took his winchester rifle and went out at the back door, saw several persons tandiug near by in the edge of a grove and fired at them. The ball struck and mortally wounded Eddie Nunn the 15 year-old son of J. N. Nunn, one of Cooke county's best citizens. Rev. Witt came into the city and surrendered to the authorities. Justice Snider granted him bail in the sum of $750.

AN OLD COLD

Is Chronic Catarrh, the Worst Disease Known.

The first stage of catarrh is commonly called catching cold. It may begin in the head, nose, throat or lungs. In the majority of cases no attention is paid to a cold, therefore nearly half of the people have chronic catarrh in some form. To neglect a cold is to invite catarrh.

The second stage of catarrh is sometimes called an old cold. If in the head, there is roaring, cracking in the ears, periodical headache, and confusion of the senses. If in the nose, discharge, sneezing, noisy breathing, and bad breath. In the throat it produces enlarged tonsils, hawking, sore throat, hoarseness or weak voice. When the catarrh reaches the bronchial tubes and lungs it produces cough, pain in the chest, expectoration, night sweats, loss of flesh and shortness of breath.

A cold in the head, which a single bottle of Peruna will cure, soon becomes chronic pharyngitis or enlarged tonsils, which will require many bottles. A slight cough, which, without a vestige of doubt, would soon disappoar with the use of Peruna, becomes chronic bronchitis, which requires a persistent use of Peruna for some time. There are a great many cases of consumption each year due directly to a neglect of coughs, colds, etc., which, if Peruna had been kept in the house and used according to directions, would have been prevented.

For a free treatise on catarrh, coughs, colds, consumption, and all diseases of winter send to The Peruna Drug Manufacturing Company, Columbus, Ohio.

A Strike at Labor.

Nitta Yuma, Miss., Jan. 1.—A movement which seems to become popular among planters of Mississippi were inaugurated at a planters' meeting in this town. Prominent agriculturists of the delta were present and resolutions were passed fixing the pay of the best male labor at 50 cents per day and the best class of female labor at 40 cents per day. Not more than $7 per month with rations will be paid the best laborers and crops should be laid by at a maxim expenditure of $3 50 per acre. Clubs will at once be formed through out the state, having for their motto the reduction of wages.

Col. John R Cameron, Capt. John Willis and Dr. A. J Phelps, three of the most prominent men of the state, are giving the movement their indorsment.

Organize an Alliance.

Let there be an alliance formed in every neighborhood not only for political reasons, but for the purpose of disseminating financial and industrial knowledge. Don't you farmers know the banker, the lawyer, the merchant and the doctor have their organizations! For what! In order to get together and council, one with another Let every farmer, whether he be a renter, a landlord or a hand on a farm, become a member of the Farmers' alliance, and assemble yourselves together once a week, or once a month at least, and discuss industrial affairs, and if you talk little politics it wont hurt you. When bankers and merchants and lawyers get together, they are not afraid to talk politics, petition the government or get on the grass.

The time has come when the American farmer must be up and acting, if he does not wish to be ground into the earth by the monopolies, the pets of our corrupt government. We urge upon the farmer the necessity and importance of a general alliance revival.—Industrial Educator.

A Certain Remedy.

"I wish," said Mrs. Corntossel, "that they was some way ter keep people from talkin' about yer behind yer back."

"They is," replied her husband.

"What?"

"Run for office. Then they'll talk about ye to yer face."—Washington Star.

Tore Out Moore's Whiskers.

Lexington, Ky., Jan. 3.—This afternoon John T. Shelby, law partner of Col. Breckinridge, assaulted Editor Charles C. Moore of the Blue Grass Blade with a cane, breaking it over his head. He then tore out a bunch of Moore's whiskers George S. Shanklin, another lawyer and Breckinridge supporter, accompanied Shelby and looked on with apparent pleasure while Shelby assaulted the editor.

Moore published in his paper this afternoon an open letter to Madaline Pollard, requesting her to go on the lecture platform with him. now that Col Breckinridge is lecturing. He said she had more sense than Breckinrikge and all his lawyers, mentioning Shelby among the rest, and that she did not lie like all of them had done.

EUGENE.

World's Almanac for 1895 at this office. 25cts per copy.

One of the greatest of journalistic enterprise ever undertaken in America, is the Chicago Herald's fast train from Chicago to Atlanta, bearing the Exposition edition of the paper, with full corps of reporters and newsboys, in charge of Mr. John J. Flinn, the special correspondent who prepared the edition, and Mr. Robert Ansley, the business manager of the Herald.

The train left Chicago at 2 a. m., Saturday the 29th and reached Atlanta the same evening, making the trip in sixteen hours—an average of over 50 miles an hour. Never before has a morning paper traveled 800 miles before nightfall. This marks a new era in journalism and forms a new bond of friendship between the great West and growing South. The Herald's article on the Exposition, Atlanta and the Piedmont region, covered five pages and was profusely illustrated. The aticle is equal to a twelve mo volume of the average size and contains much valuable information about the Exposition, Atlanta and the South.

Waite's Last Message.

Denver, Col., Jan. 4.—The new officers are now ready to take charge.

Gov. Waite read his last message to the legislature today. He called attention to the fact that in spite of the destruction of the state's silver interest the credit of Colorado is higher in New York than ever before and more miles of railroad built in the state last year than in any other. He referred to the increased production of gold and said: "But even if gold be found in Colorado as abundantly as in California or Australia it might relieve but not atone for the tyranny and oppression which under both republican and democratic presidents, have deprived the people of the free coinage of silver, a right which was theirs before the constitution of the United States was adopted and which was never ceded to congress."

After a full discussion of state land matters the governor recommends that the state construct reservoirs and canals for irrigation purposes. He condemns the Carey land bill as "in the interest of private corporation," and recommends that the general assembly "memorialize congress to cede arid lands to the several states in which they are situated under conditions that the title to these lands shall forever remain in the state to be leased in areas not exceeding 160 acres to actual settlers only."

The governor reviews the recommendations first made to the extra session of the ninth general assembly, that the legislature make gold and silver dollars, foreign and domestic, containing not less than 412 1-2 grains of silver 9-10 fine, legal tender in the payment of all debts collectable in Colorado. He declared that the time had come for aggressive action on on the part of the friends of silver. The governor declared that during the year the president had sent troops into Colorado and Illinois in violation of the constitution and recommended that the assembly memorialize congress to solemly protest against the usurpations of the United States marshals, who, with the aid and consent of the United States judges, converted the United States court houses into recruiting stations to enlist desperadoes as deputy marshal without any regard for proper qualifications, but simply for military purposes."
